NEW BUILDING PROJECTS UNDER WAY

After reconstructing buildings damaged in the war, Nis is building many new projects. Among those that have been finished or are in the process of construction there are 64 large industrial projects, 42 large revenue-producing structures, 189 new housing projects with 823 apartments, two educational buildings, 5 office buildings, 3 health centers, a large 62-meter-long cement bridge over the Tisava River costing 9,540,000 dinars, an 82-meter aqueduct, a sewage system 7,051 meters long, streets with a surface of 44,863 square meters, a large park near Turdjava, and many other projects.

A new building for the "Cele Kula" Tile and brick enterprises has been erected. Also, a machine and carpenter shop have been constructed.

The plan for Vis includes the construction of an oxygen plant, a machine shop, and the "Istok" Foundry.

In Kragujevac, which is also in Serbia, 20 new housing projects, post offices, technical secondary schools, and other federal buildings have been erected. The "Partizan" leather factory has been enlarged. In Pristina a new national investment bank, a national insurance institution, a federal court house, and a national hotel are being built.
